Melissa is an award-winning artist, with several 1st and 2nd place awards from Amador County Fairs, including a Best of Show for her watercolor portrait, "Tyler" in 2011.

Melissa has drawn, painted and hand crafted most of her life. With the desire to focus on watercolor since moving to Fiddletown in 2008, she was fortunate to find Sabina Turner with whom she's been studying since 2009. She also enjoys learning new techniques and styles, so when time allows she seeks out classes and workshops from other local artists. Her work can be seen at Sutter Creek Gallery in Sutter Creek as well as Bella Regazza Hair Salon in Plymouth, CA.

"I love watercolor and the challenge presented with each painting. I like to push myself and so I try to remember to not get so attached during the process to be afraid to 'ruin it'. I hope you enjoy my paintings and will continue to follow my work and enjoy the journey with me."
